Riverside Community Center Newsletter · Notes from the March Meeting

Thirty people came to the March meeting, which was held in Room 4, where the English classes meet. Grace Park was the chairperson, and Leo Garcia took the minutes. Here is a short report.

The first item on the agenda was the parking lot. Some neighbors had seen a post online that said the lot was going to close. Ms. Park said that she had called the city office to ask whether it was true. It isn't. The post had no author and no date stamp. It can't be an official notice. Ms. Park asked everyone to check the source before they share a post.

The second item was the community room. The room is so popular that two groups want it on Saturday mornings: the children's art class and the walking club. After a long talk, the groups found a compromise. The art class will use the room from 9:00 to 11:00, and the walking club will meet there after 11:00. Everyone agreed that this was fair.

Finally, Ahmed Hassan read a proposal for a homework help night. Volunteers would help children with reading and math on Tuesday evenings. "Helping children is important," he said, "but we need more volunteers before we can start." If you would like to help, please write your name on the sign-up sheet at the front desk.

The next meeting is on April 12 at 6:30 p.m. A mentor from the library is going to give a short talk about free online classes. Do you know if your neighbors are coming? Please tell them!

E. Writing (8 points)

Choose one task. Write 8–12 sentences (a letter of one or two paragraphs). Give at least one reason.

Task 1: A claim letter. Something you bought arrived broken. Write a letter to customer service.

- Say what you bought, when it arrived, and what is wrong. Say what you attached (photos, a receipt).
- Ask for a solution politely (I was wondering if you could…). Say how they can contact you, and say thank you.

Task 2: A thank-you letter to a mentor. Write a letter to a teacher, coworker, or neighbor who helped you this year.

- Say how long you have known this person and two ways he or she helped you (the class where…, the résumé which…).
- Say what you are going to do next, and say thank you.
