Level 5 · Week 8: Midterm: Teacher Packet

Midterm Exam · Lessons 1–7 · Level 5 Adult ESL

Contents

- How to use this packet
- Step-by-step directions and clock-time plan
- Speaking interview and rubric
- Listening script
- Answer key (with where each answer is in the audio and in the reading)
- Scoring guide (proposed score bands)
- Teacher notes
- Papers to copy: Speaking Interview Card (teacher), Speaking Task Cards, Score Sheet (teacher), Can-Do Self-Check, one-page Answer Key (teacher)

How to Use This Packet

- The test for learners is a separate file: `Level5_Midterm_Student_Test.pdf` (no answers, no cover page). Print 1 per learner + 3 extra.
- This packet is for you: directions, the listening script, the answer key, the scoring guide, and the speaking papers.
- Audio: the recording `L5_Midterm_listening.mp3` is not ready yet (the script is about 2:12 long). Until it is ready, read the listening script aloud two times, at a natural speed. Two readers are better: one reads the women's lines and one reads the men's lines.
- All instructions are in English. Read each instruction aloud once and show an example on the board if learners look unsure.

Week 8: Midterm: Step by Step

What the test has

Part	What learners do	Points	Time
A. Listening	Listen to two conversations (a practice interview; a clinic message passed on at home). Circle an answer, mark true or false, or write one word (10 items).	10	18 min (6:10–6:28)
B. Words	Complete sentences with words from a box (8 items).	8	17 min (6:28–6:45) for B + C
C. Grammar	Part 1: circle the correct words (12 items). Part 2: find and fix one mistake in each sentence (4 items).	16	(with B)
D. Reading	Read a text of about 261 words. Answer 8 questions.	8	13 min (6:55–7:08)
E. Writing	Choose one of two tasks. Write 6–8 sentences (one paragraph).	8	19 min (7:08–7:27)
Written total		50	67 min
Speaking interview	Pairs with the teacher, during the written parts. Scored with the rubric, not added to the written total.	3–9	4 min per pair Covers Lessons 1–7. Listening: a practice interview (Lessons 1–4) and a clinic message passed on at home (Lessons 5–7). Grammar: present perfect continuous; past perfect with by the time; wish and one third-conditional sentence; unless / as long as / even though; present and past passive; said / told / asked; tag questions. Reading: a community blog post about opening a bakery. Writing: a paragraph about a project in order, or about a small regret and a next step.

Before class (20 minutes)

1. Print the student test (1 per learner + 3). From this packet, print the Speaking Task Cards (1 set per pair), the Score Sheet, and the Self-Check (1 per learner).
2. The recording is not ready yet: ask a second reader to help, and read the listening script through once before class.
3. Set 2 chairs and 1 chair for you in a quiet corner (for the speaking interviews).
4. Have pencils, a clock or timer, and the class list.

Step 1 · 6:00–6:10 · Welcome and one review station · 10 min

- Say: "Tonight is the test. First listening, then words and grammar, then a short break, then reading and writing. I will call you in pairs for a short speaking interview."
- One review station for the whole class (the midterm: a one-minute interview in pairs; the final: a must / might / can't source check). Call the first pair for the interview.

Step 2 · 6:10–6:28 · A. Listening · 18 min

- Hand out the test. Learners write their name. Read the Part A instruction and the scene line aloud.
- Give 2 minutes to read the questions. Play the audio (or read the script) once. Wait 1 minute. Play it again. Give 2 more minutes.
- No interviews during the listening.

Step 3 · 6:28–6:45 · B. Words and C. Grammar · 17 min

- Read the Part B and Part C instructions aloud. Show Part C2 on the board: She said me the time. → She told me the time.
- Learners work alone and quietly. Call pairs for the speaking interview (4 minutes per pair).

Step 4 · 6:45–6:55 · Break · 10 min

- Collect nothing yet: learners turn the test over. Continue interviews if needed.

Step 5 · 6:55–7:08 · D. Reading · 13 min

- Read the instruction. Learners read the text and answer. Continue interviews.

Step 6 · 7:08–7:27 · E. Writing · 19 min

- Read both tasks aloud. Learners check the box for the task they chose and write the number of sentences on the test.
- Say: "Put your ideas in order. Read the questions under your task." At 7:25, say: "Two more minutes. Read your writing one time."

Step 7 · 7:27–7:30 · Self-check and goodbye · 3 min

- Collect the tests. Hand out the Can-Do Self-Check. Learners check the boxes and write one goal. Collect it.
- Finish any last interviews after class or at the start of the next class.

Clock-time plan

Time	Whole class	Teacher
6:00–6:10	One review station	Interview pair 1
6:10–6:28	A. Listening	Play the audio two times
6:28–6:45	B. Words, C. Grammar	Interviews
6:45–6:55	Break	Interviews if needed
6:55–7:08	D. Reading	Interviews
7:08–7:27	E. Writing	Interviews
7:27–7:30	Self-check	Collect everything

Speaking interview (4 minutes per pair)

- Part 1 (about 2 minutes). Ask each learner 2 of the questions on the Speaking Interview Card. After each answer, ask one follow-up question (Why? When? Who with? What happened next?).
- Part 2 (about 2 minutes). Give the pair one Task Card. They read it for 20 seconds and then talk to each other. You listen and only help if they stop.
- Score each learner on the 3 rubric areas (1–3 each, 3–9 in total). Write the score at once, before the next pair.

Speaking rubric (1–3 in each area)

Area	1	2	3
Communication	Short answers only; needs a lot of help.	Answers in 1–3 sentences, or gives no reason, or does not respond to the partner.	Answers in about four connected sentences with a reason and responds to the partner (a follow-up question, a check, or polite agreement or disagreement).
Target grammar	Few lesson forms; many mistakes stop the meaning.	Uses some lesson forms (been + -ing, had + past participle, I wish I had, said / told / asked, must / might / can't, which / where / who); mistakes do not stop the meaning.	Uses lesson forms correctly most of the time.
Pronunciation and fluency	Hard to understand; long stops.	Understandable with some effort; some stops.	Easy to understand; few stops.

From Level 5 Scope §7 (the Level 4 rubric; a 3 in Communication means about four connected sentences, a reason, and a response to the partner). Score 3–9 in total.

Listening Script

Listening script: `L5_Midterm_listening.mp3` (about 2:12, estimated from the script; not recorded yet; play it two times)

Speakers: Jana, Ms. Hale, Samir, and a narrator.

> Narrator: Midterm listening. Part one. Samir is practicing for a job interview with his teacher, Ms. Hale. Listen.
>
> Ms. Hale: Good morning, Samir. Thanks for coming in. Let's start. How long have you been working at Green Market?
>
> Samir: I've been working there for three years. I started as a cashier, and now I train new workers.
>
> Ms. Hale: That's great. Can you give me an example of an accomplishment?
>
> Samir: Sure. Last year, our store was painted, and a new counter was added. By the time we opened again, I had already trained four new cashiers.
>
> Ms. Hale: Very good. Is there anything you wish you had done differently?
>
> Samir: Well, I wish I had asked for more training on the computer system. If I had asked earlier, I would have learned it faster.
>
> Ms. Hale: That's an honest answer. You've brought your résumé, haven't you?

Samir: Yes, I have. Here it is. I've also brought a list of my skills.

Ms. Hale: Thank you. Remember, the real interview is on Thursday at nine. Unless you bring a photo ID, you can't go upstairs.

Samir: OK. I'll bring my ID. Thank you, Ms. Hale.

Narrator: Part two. That evening, Samir's wife, Jana, tells him about a phone message.

Jana: Samir, the clinic called today. The nurse left a message.

Samir: Oh? What did she say?

Jana: She said that Adam's appointment had changed. It was moved from Monday to Wednesday.

Samir: Wednesday? What time?

Jana: At 4:30. She told me to bring his school form. And she asked if we could come ten minutes early.

Samir: OK. Even though it's a busy week, I can take him. I don't work on Wednesday afternoon.

Jana: Great. She also asked me to call back to confirm.

Samir: You called back, didn't you?

Jana: Yes, I did. I confirmed it this afternoon.

Samir: Good. I'll put it on the calendar.

Narrator: That's the end of the listening.

Answer key

A. Listening (10 points: 1 point each)

- 1. b. He trains new workers.
- 2. years
- 3. True
- 4. b. He wishes he had asked for more training.
- 5. learned
- 6. False
- 7. b. a photo ID
- 8. a. Adam's appointment had changed.
- 9. Wednesday
- 10. b. if they could come ten minutes early

B. Words (8 points: 1 point each)

- 1. accomplishment
- 2. inspector
- 3. reminder

- 4. permission
- 5. receipt
- 6. callback
- 7. signature
- 8. double-check
- Not used: refund, handshake. Small spelling mistakes are OK if the word is clear.

C. Grammar (16 points: 1 point each)

Part 1:

- 1. have been working
- 2. worked
- 3. had
- 4. had already started
- 5. had known
- 6. wouldn't have been
- 7. unless
- 8. Even though
- 9. was posted
- 10. was added
- 11. told
- 12. didn't you

Part 2 (1 point if the mistake is fixed and the learner adds no new mistake):

- 13. I have been working here since 2024. (the mistake: "am working") Also correct: I've been working here since 2024. / I have worked here since 2024.
- 14. I wish I had asked. (the mistake: "would have asked")
- 15. She told me the time. (the mistake: "said me")
- 16. The class is on Tuesday, isn't it? (the mistake: "doesn't it")

D. Reading (8 points: 1 point each)

- 1. c. for twenty years
- 2. False
- 3. b. bought two ovens
- 4. March
- 5. a. They could open if they fixed the door.

- 6. daughter
- 7. b. that they had hired a second worker
- 8. False

E. Writing (8 points): score with the writing rubric in the Scoring Guide. Model answers (what a full-score answer can look like):

> Task 1 (A paragraph about a project): Last month, my neighbors and I cleaned up the small park on our street. First, we made a sign-up sheet, and twelve people signed up. Then the city gave us permission to use the park on Saturday. By the time we arrived, someone had already brought bags and gloves. We picked up trash for three hours, and the old benches were painted. I have been helping in my community for two years, and this was my favorite project. Next spring, we're going to plant flowers.

> Task 2 (A paragraph about a small regret): Last week, I missed an important meeting at my son's school. I didn't set an alarm, and I forgot the time. I wish I had written it on my calendar. If I had set a reminder, I would have remembered it. The teacher was kind, and we found a new time. Next time, I'm going to put every meeting on my phone calendar on the same day. I'm also going to set two reminders, because one isn't enough for me.

Scoring Guide

Written test: score bands (proposed)

Written score	Band	What it means
39–50	Meets	The learner can use most of the Lesson 1–7 language on their own.
26–38	Almost	The learner understands a lot but still needs practice. Look at which part was low.
0–25	Not yet	Talk with the learner. Plan extra practice before the final.

These bands are proposed (about 78% and 52%, the same as the Level 1 and Level 2 exams). The program confirms them after the first classes use the test.

Writing rubric (Part E, 8 points)

Area	0	1	2
Task	Off topic, or much shorter than the task asks.	On topic, but shorter than the task asks, or a part of the task is missing.	Does the whole task in the number of sentences asked, with reasons or details.
Order	A reader cannot follow the order of the ideas.	Some order, but a reader has to guess what happened first or what the main point is.	Clear order: first, then, by the time…; or a greeting, the reason for writing, details, and a closing.
Grammar	Many mistakes; the meaning is hard to follow.	Some mistakes in the lesson forms.	Uses the lesson forms for the task with few mistakes.
Clear for a reader	A reader cannot follow it.	A reader understands most of it after reading it two times.	A reader understands it on the first reading.

Spelling mistakes do not lose points if the word is clear. Score what the learner wrote, not what is missing from the model answer.

Speaking (3–9, separate from the written score)

- 7–9: strong for this level. 5–6: on track. 3–4: needs more speaking practice. (Proposed.)

After the midterm

- Give back the tests in the next class. Go over Part C together: learners correct their own mistakes.

- For learners in the Not yet band, choose 2 lessons to review with them (the lesson numbers are in the table above).
- The final exam is in Week 15 and covers all 13 lessons, with more items from Lessons 8–13.

Teacher Notes

- Midterm: the listening has two parts (a practice interview; a clinic message passed on at home). Read the scene line aloud before you play it.
- Part A9: Wed. is also correct. Part D4: Mar. is also correct.
- Part C2: accept any correct sentence that fixes the one mistake; some other good answers are in the key.
- All test items use only words and grammar taught in the Level 5 lessons. If a learner missed a lesson, look at the lesson number in the answer key before you decide what to review.
- Learners may ask what a word in an instruction means. You may explain the instruction, but not the words that are tested.
- Learners who need more time can finish Part E at the start of the next class.
- Step 1 has one review station. The other review stations in Scope §7 do not fit on the same night as Parts B and D; use them at the end of the class before the exam if you have time.

Papers to Copy

Speaking Interview Card (Teacher)

Part 1. Ask each learner 2 questions. Then ask one follow-up question.

1. How long have you been living in this city?
2. Tell me about a job, a class, or a project. What had you already done before you started?
3. What is something you wish you had known when you started this class?
4. What is a rule at your work, school, or building? Use unless or as long as.
5. Tell me about a message someone gave you. What did the person say or ask?
6. You like this class, don't you? Why?

Follow-up questions: Why? When was that? Who were you with? What happened next? How did you feel?

Part 2. Give the pair one Task Card. Listen for:

- Card A (A practice interview): How long have you been…?, been + -ing, had already…, I wish I had…; about four connected sentences per answer and one follow-up question.
- Card B (A message relay): said that…, told me to…, asked me to…, a tag question (…, didn't she?); a summary of about four sentences.

Speaking Task Cards

Cut out the cards. Give one card to each pair.

Card A: A practice interview

Learner A is the interviewer. Ask: How long have you been…? What is one accomplishment? Is there anything you wish you had done differently?

Learner B answers in about four sentences: how long, one accomplishment, one example, one reason. Then change roles.

Card B: A message relay

Learner A reads this message to Learner B: "This is the clinic. Your appointment moved from Monday to Thursday at 3:00. Bring the blue form. Please call back to confirm."

Learner B tells the message to the teacher with She said that…, She told me to…, She asked me to…, then checks one detail with a tag question. Change roles.
