- Speaking interview and rubric
- Listening script

- Scoring guide (proposed score bands)
- Teacher notes

How to Use This Packet

- The test for learners is a separate file: `Level4_Final_Student_Test.pdf` (no answers, no cover page). Print 1 per learner + 3 extra.
- This packet is for you: directions, the listening script, the answer key, the scoring guide, and the speaking papers.
- Audio: the recording `L4_Final_listening.mp3` is not ready yet (the script is about 1:52 long). Until it is ready, read the listening script aloud two times, at a natural speed. Two readers are better: one reads the women's lines and one reads the men's lines.
- All instructions are in English. Read each instruction aloud once and show an example on the board if learners look unsure.

Week 15: Final: Step by Step

What the test has

Part	What learners do	Points	Time
A. Listening	Listen to three parts (a local news report; a time-off voicemail; a phone call). Circle an answer, mark true or false, or write one word (10 items).	10	15 min (6:10–6:25)
B. Words	Complete sentences with words from a box (8 items).	8	20 min (6:25–6:45) for B + C
C. Grammar	Part 1: circle the correct words (15 items). Part 2: find and fix one mistake in each sentence (5 items).	20	(with B)
D. Reading	Read a text of about 154 words. Answer 6 questions.	6	12 min (7:00–7:12)
E. Writing	Choose one of two tasks. Write 5–8 sentences.	6	15 min (7:12–7:27)
Written total		50	60 min
Speaking interview	Pairs with the teacher, during the written parts. Scored with the rubric, not added to the written total.	3–9	4 min per pair Covers Lessons 1–13. Most items are from Lessons 8–13 (local news, opinions at a community meeting, phrasal verbs, time off, scams, my story); some items review Lessons 1–7. The speaking interview uses the same first questions as Weeks 1–3, so you can hear the growth.

Before class (20 minutes)

1. Print the student test (1 per learner + 3). From this packet, print the Speaking Task Cards (1 set per pair), the Score Sheet, and the Self-Check (1 per learner).
2. The recording is not ready yet: ask a second reader to help, and read the listening script through once before class.
3. Set 2 chairs and 1 chair for you in a quiet corner (for the speaking interviews).
4. Have pencils, a clock or timer, and the class list.

Step 1 · 6:00–6:10 · Welcome and warm-up · 10 min

- Say: "Tonight is the test. First listening, then words and grammar, then a break, then reading and writing. I will call you in pairs for a short speaking interview."
- Warm-up: pairs ask each other 2 questions from the board (Have you ever…? How long have you…?) and answer in 3 sentences. Call the first pair for the interview.

Step 2 · 6:10–6:25 · A. Listening · 15 min

- Hand out the test. Learners write their name. Read the Part A instruction and the scene line aloud.
- Give 1 minute to read the questions. Play the audio (or read the script) once. Wait 1 minute. Play it again. Give 2 more minutes.
- No interviews during the listening.

Step 3 · 6:25–6:45 · B. Words and C. Grammar · 20 min

- Read the Part B and Part C instructions aloud. Show Part C2 on the board: I have went there. → I have gone there.
- Learners work alone and quietly. Call pairs for the speaking interview (4 minutes per pair).

Step 4 · 6:45–7:00 · Break · 15 min

- Collect nothing yet: learners turn the test over. Continue interviews if needed.

Step 5 · 7:00–7:12 · D. Reading · 12 min

- Read the instruction. Learners read the text and answer. Continue interviews.

Step 6 · 7:12–7:27 · E. Writing · 15 min

- Read both tasks aloud. Learners check the box for the task they chose and write 5–8 sentences.
- Say: "Give reasons. Read the questions under your task." At 7:25, say: "Two more minutes. Read your writing one time."

Step 7 · 7:27–7:30 · Self-check and goodbye · 3 min

- Collect the tests. Hand out the Can-Do Self-Check. Learners check the boxes and write one goal. Collect it.
- Finish any last interviews after class or at the start of the next class.

Clock-time plan

Time	Whole class	Teacher
6:00–6:10	Warm-up questions in pairs	Interview pair 1
6:10–6:25	A. Listening	Play the audio two times
6:25–6:45	B. Words, C. Grammar	Interviews
6:45–7:00	Break	Interviews if needed
7:00–7:12	D. Reading	Interviews
7:12–7:27	E. Writing	Interviews
7:27–7:30	Self-check	Collect everything

Speaking interview (4 minutes per pair)

- Part 1 (about 2 minutes). Ask each learner 2 of the questions on the Speaking Interview Card. After each answer, ask one follow-up question (Why? When? Who with? What happened next?).
- Part 2 (about 2 minutes). Give the pair one Task Card. They read it for 20 seconds and then talk to each other. You listen and only help if they stop.
- Score each learner on the 3 rubric areas (1–3 each, 3–9 in total). Write the score at once, before the next pair.

Speaking rubric (1–3 in each area)

Area	1	2	3
Communication	Short answers only; needs a lot of help.	Answers in 1–2 sentences, or gives no reason, or does not respond to the partner.	Answers in about 3 connected sentences with a reason and responds to the partner (a follow-up question, or polite agreement or disagreement).
Target grammar	Few lesson forms; many mistakes stop the meaning.	Uses some lesson forms (have + past participle, would, might, to + verb); mistakes do not stop the meaning.	Uses lesson forms correctly most of the time.
Pronunciation and fluency	Hard to understand; long stops.	Understandable with some effort; some stops.	Easy to understand; few stops.

From Level 4 Scope §7 (the Level 3 rubric, with a higher bar for Communication). Score 3–9 in total.

Listening Script

Listening script: `L4_Final_listening.mp3` (about 1:52, estimated from the script; not recorded yet; play it two times)

Speakers: Caller, Diane Lee, Mrs. Lopez, and a narrator.

> Narrator: Final exam listening. Part one. A local news report. Listen.
>
> Diane Lee: Good evening. I'm Diane Lee with the local news. Starting Monday, Pine Avenue will be closed for construction. The city is replacing an old water pipe.
>
> Diane Lee: The work might take three weeks. Bus route 12 will take a detour on Oak Street, so there may be delays in the morning.
>
> Diane Lee: Do you know where the detour starts? It starts at the library. For updates, visit the city website.
>
> Narrator: Part two. Maria Lopez leaves a voicemail for her supervisor.
>
> Mrs. Lopez: Hi, Mr. Brown. This is Maria Lopez from the night shift. I'm calling to ask for time off. I'd like to take three vacation days next month to visit my sister in Texas. She's going to have a baby.
>
> Mrs. Lopez: I've already filled out the request form, and Ana has agreed to cover my shifts. Please call me back when you have time. Thank you.
>
> Narrator: Part three. The next day, Maria gets a phone call.
>
> Caller: Hello, is this Maria Lopez? I'm calling from the water company.

Mrs. Lopez: Yes, this is Maria.
Caller: Your water bill is late. If you don't pay today, we're going to turn off your water.
Mrs. Lopez: That's strange. I paid it last week.
Caller: You need to pay with a gift card. Please tell me the PIN on the card.
Mrs. Lopez: A gift card? The water company doesn't ask for gift cards. I think this is a scam.
Caller: No, no. This is an official call.
Mrs. Lopez: I'm going to hang up now, and I'm going to call the number that's on my bill.
Narrator: That's the end of the listening.

- 2. True
- 3. b. Families could grow vegetables.
- 4. 2015
- 5. b. a playground
- 6. False

E. Writing (6 points): score with the writing rubric in the Scoring Guide. Model answers (what a full-score answer can look like):

Task 1 (An opinion paragraph): In my opinion, our town should build a community garden on the empty lot. First, families could grow their own vegetables, so they would spend less money on food. Second, a garden isn't as expensive as a playground. Some people think kids need a place to play, and I see their point. But there is already a playground near the school. If we had a garden, neighbors would meet and work together. That's why I think a garden is the best choice.

Task 2 (A time-off email): Dear Ms. Green, I'm writing to ask for three days off next month. I want to go to Chicago to visit my grandmother, who is sick. I have already filled out the request form, and it is on your desk. Carlos has agreed to cover my shifts. I'll finish all my tasks before I leave. Please let me know if this is OK. Thank you, Luis

Scoring Guide

Written test: score bands (proposed)

Written score	Band	What it means
39–50	Meets	The learner can use most of the Level 4 language on their own.
26–38	Almost	The learner understands a lot but still needs practice. Look at which part was low.
0–25	Not yet	Talk with the learner. Plan extra practice.

These bands are proposed (about 78% and 52%, the same as the Level 1 and Level 2 exams). The program confirms them after the first classes use the test.

Writing rubric (Part E, 6 points)

Area	0	1	2
Task	Off topic or fewer than 4 sentences.	On topic; 4 sentences, or a part of the task is missing.	Does the task in 5–8 sentences, with reasons.
Grammar	Many mistakes; the meaning is hard to follow.	Some mistakes in the lesson forms.	Uses the lesson forms for the task with few mistakes.
Clear for a reader	A reader cannot follow it.	A reader understands most of it after reading it two times.	A reader understands it on the first reading.

Spelling mistakes do not lose points if the word is clear. Score what the learner wrote, not what is missing from the model answer.

Speaking (3–9, separate from the written score)

- 7–9: strong for this level. 5–6: on track. 3–4: needs more speaking practice. (Proposed.)

Ready for Level 5 (proposed)

- came to at least 9 of the 13 lessons;
- took the final exam (written and speaking);
- scored 2 or more in each of the 3 speaking rubric areas;
- wrote an email or paragraph of at least 5 sentences (Part E) that a reader understands on the first reading (Clear for a reader = 2).

Proposed, from Level 4 Scope §7. The written score bands help you plan; the four points above decide Ready for Level 5. The program confirms the rule.

Teacher Notes

- Part A3: the learner circles True. Part A2: 3 is also correct.
- Final: use the Ready for Level 5 points in the Scoring Guide. Write R or N on the Score Sheet.
- Part 1 of the speaking interview uses the same questions as Weeks 1–3. If you have your notes from Week 1, compare the answers.
- Part C2: accept any correct sentence that fixes the one mistake; some other good answers are in the key.
- All test items use only words and grammar taught in the Level 4 lessons. If a learner missed a lesson, look at the lesson number in the answer key before you decide what to review.
- Learners may ask what a word in an instruction means. You may explain the instruction, but not the words that are tested.
- Learners who need more time can finish Part E at the start of the next class.

Papers to Copy

Speaking Interview Card (Teacher)

Part 1. Ask each learner 2 questions (the same questions as the first weeks, so you can hear the growth). Then ask one follow-up question.

1. Have you ever tried a new food? Tell me about it.
2. How long have you lived in this city?
3. Tell me about a job or a home you had before.
4. What have you already done this week?
5. What would you do if you had a free day tomorrow?
6. What do you want to do after this class?

Follow-up questions: Why? When was that? Who were you with? What happened next? How did you feel?

Part 2. Give the pair one Task Card. Listen for:

- Card A (An opinion exchange): In my opinion…, because…, as … as, If we had…, we'd…, I see your point, but…; each learner responds to the partner.
- Card B (A strange phone call): a caller who…, a call that…, I'm going to hang up, I'll call the official number; warning signs with reasons.

Speaking Task Cards

Cut out the cards. Give one card to each pair.

Card A: An opinion exchange

Your town has money for one thing: a community garden, a playground, or more parking.

Each learner gives an opinion with two reasons. The partner agrees or disagrees politely (I see your point, but…) and asks one question.

Card B: A strange phone call

Learner A calls and says Learner B won a prize. Ask for a gift card or a PIN.

Learner B asks questions, says no politely, and ends the call safely. Then tell your partner why it was a scam.
