> 15: 4 groups (one of 3). 7–8: 2 groups. 5 or fewer: one meeting; rotate the chair if you have time.

Step by step

Step 1 · 6:00–6:06 · Opening Talk + Homework Check · 6 min

- A asks a card question. B answers in about four sentences. A asks one follow-up. Then switch.
- Homework check: one line from the Lesson 11 letter, or Waiting on hold is tiring. Write 2 corrections. No names.

Step 2 · 6:06–6:12 · New Words · 6 min

- Point, say, repeat.
- Show: the chairperson keeps the order. The minutes are the notes. A name tent shows who is speaking. A question card is one question, not a speech. The library is the small room. The auditorium is the big room. We are not meeting there.
- Check the meaning: "Is which for a thing or a place?" (A thing.) • "Is where for a thing or a place?" (A place.) • "Is who for a person?" (Yes.)
- Partner game, then teams: 15 learners, 3 teams; 7–8, 2 teams; 5 or fewer, one team against the clock.

Step 3 · 6:12–6:32 · Listening + Hear it, say it · 20 min

- Before you listen: A short library meeting. Ms. Adeyemi chairs. Tom wants later hours. Grace wants the current hours, because the bus she takes stops early. They agree to a one-month try.
- Voices: Ms. Adeyemi, Tom, and Grace. A narrator opens and closes the listening.
- Play 1 → Task A. Play 2 → Tasks B and C.
- Hear it, say it: gonna and wanna are short forms. This listening uses the full forms. Which is not witch. A short pause before which or where when the clause adds important information.

Step 4 · 6:32–6:45 · Grammar Q&A + pair check · 13 min

- Box 1: which for things. The proposal which the chair read is on page 2.
- Box 2: where for places. This is the room where we meet.
- Box 3: who for a person. The person who takes notes is the secretary.
- Box 4: opinion phrases. I think… / I see your point, but…
- Rule of thumb: Which and who tell you which thing or person. Do not add it or he after them (the proposal which the chair read, not which the chair read it). Where replaces there.
- Pair check: A says room, proposal, or person. B makes a sentence with where, which, or who.

Step 5 · 7:00–7:18 · Talk Time · 18 min

- Round 1, Read the Agenda: groups of 4 get a one-page agenda (welcome, the proposal, questions, a decision). Each person prepares one question with which or where.
- Round 2, A Learner Chairs: the chair keeps the order, invites one speaker, and stops at four minutes. The group writes one sentence: the decision and one reason. A second set of cards is a school conference for groups that prefer it.
- The question is library hours or a school conference time. No elections and no party names. The chair's job is to keep the order, not to win.
- If behind: round 1 only.

Step 6 · 7:18–7:25 · Read & Write · 7 min

- Read the agenda and the proposal. Pairs answer the five questions.
- Write a 6–8 sentence comment for the chair: what you support, one reason, and a question with which or where.

Step 7 · 7:25–7:30 · Exit Ticket + Homework · 5 min · NEVER SKIP

- Exit ticket: Which idea do you support, and where would you say it? Four sentences with which or where, a reason, and one polite phrase.
- Homework item 1 together: The room ____ we meet. → where. About 20–25 minutes.

Listening script

2:17. Spoken lines use going to and want to.

Narrator: Lesson twelve. This is a short meeting at the library. Ms. Adeyemi is the chairperson. Tom and Grace are going to talk about evening hours.

Ms. Adeyemi: Welcome. Please look at the agenda, which is on your handout. This is the room where we meet.

Tom: I want to speak about the proposal. I want later hours.

Grace: I see your point, but I want to keep the current hours. The bus I take stops early.

Ms. Adeyemi: The proposal which I read is on page 2. It says a one-month try.

Tom: The library which we use closes at six. I want it open until eight.

Grace: The stop where I catch the bus is dark after seven. That is my reason.

Ms. Adeyemi: The person who takes notes is writing the minutes. Please use the microphone when you speak.

Tom: I think a one-month try is fair. I'm going to come after work on Thursday.

Grace: I see your point, but I need a safe ride. I can try it where the evening bus still runs.

Ms. Adeyemi: Please take a question card. Tom, which hours do you want?

Tom: I want eight o'clock on Thursday only. I want to keep the change small.

Grace: I can agree to Thursday if the sign-in sheet shows how many people come.

Ms. Adeyemi: Our decision is a one-month try on Thursday, until eight. The timer says we should stop.

Tom: My name tent is on the table, so the minutes can show who spoke.

Grace: The auditorium is too big. This library room is the place where we should meet.

Ms. Adeyemi: I am going to put the decision in the minutes. Thank you. I am glad the meeting was calm.

Tom: I want to ask one question. Which bus still runs at eight?

Grace: The bus where I get off stops at seven. Thursday is the only day I can try.

Ms. Adeyemi: Then Thursday is the try. We are not going to move the meeting to the auditorium.

Narrator: That's the end of the listening.

Round 2. The chair keeps the order. 7:00–7:18 for both rounds.

A. Read the agenda and the proposal.

River Bend Library · Evening hours meeting

Agenda

1. Welcome and the sign-in sheet
2. The proposal, which is on page 2 of this handout
3. Questions, one question card each
4. A decision

Please sign in before you sit down. Write your name the same way it appears on your name tent. If you arrive late, add your name at the bottom. The minutes will list the people who signed in. Please wear a name tent. The chairperson is Ms. Adeyemi. The person who takes notes will write the minutes. Use the microphone when you speak. The timer is four minutes for each speaker. We are in the room where we meet. We are not in the auditorium. The auditorium is too big for this group.

Proposal: a one-month try of later hours

The library which we use now closes at six. Some workers cannot come before six. Tom's proposal says the library stays open until eight on Thursday for one month. The handout shows the same idea. He thinks a short try is fair. He is going to come after work if the hours change. He does not want the library open late every night. Thursday is the only day in the proposal.

Grace does not want the change every night. The bus she takes stops early. The stop where she catches the bus is dark after seven. She can agree to Thursday only, if the sign-in sheet shows how many people come. She wants a safe ride home. That is her reason. She sees Tom's point, but she will not give up the bus.

The chair asks each person for one reason. A useful sentence is: I think a one-month try is fair. Another is: I see your point, but I need a safe ride. The decision is about hours. It is not an election, and it is not about a party. At the end, the chair reads one sentence: the decision and one reason. Example: We will try Thursday hours until eight for one month, because workers need a later time and riders need a safe bus.

If your group prefers a school conference, use the same English. The question can be: Which time works, and where will we meet? A parent or a volunteer can both use the card. Do not talk about grades. Do not talk about discipline. The chair still keeps the order and still stops at four minutes.

B. Answer the questions.

1. What are they deciding? _____
2. Who is the chairperson? _____
3. What does Tom want? _____
4. Why does Grace want the current hours?

5. Where is the meeting? _____

C. Write a 6–8 sentence comment for the chair. What you support, one reason, and a question with which or where.

My comment
